The descriptions for the two sessions offered during the first half of the workshop are shown in the table below. Use the description for the first session you attended to answer question #2.

VIEW: Back to Basics	Bringing STEAM to Your School
Designed for inexperienced VIEW users, new users, or anyone who has not attended a workshop in the last three years, this session will take a counselor's tour through the VIEW website. We will set up personalized folders, and explore the collection of new and updated resources. During the session we will discuss different ways to use VIEW resources with students, parents, and professionals. This session will be held in a computer lab for a hands-on experience!	Join us and explore how Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics (STEAM) share important attributes necessary for success in the workplace. Create and take home resources to encourage teachers and administrators to support career development and participate in a school-wide STEAM-focused career week!

- Promoting Careers in Information Technology
 Character Development Using Career Exploration

The objectives for the two sessions offered during the second half of the workshop are shown in the table below. Use the objectives for the second session you attended to answer question #2.

Promoting Careers in Information Technology	Character Development Using Career Exploration
Integrating art, apps, e-textiles, coding, and more, this session will provide advice and resources intended to promote student interest in information technology careers and help students develop 21st century skills. Throughout the session we will explore the resources—including comprehensive lesson plans, outreach exemplars, and Line Chaserz®—and discuss how they can serve as simple and affordable ways to integrate technology in the classroom and after-school technology clubs!	Come experience a hands-on approach to bridging character education and career development. Engage in activities exploring how pillars of character are essential for career success. Take home a calendar of activities to implement over the course of the school year that delve into character development using career exploration!
